Additional Opportunities

Garden Volunteers

Gardening is very rewarding but can be a lot of work! If you enjoy digging in the dirt and watching things grow, consider volunteering your time to help prep, maintain (weed and water) or clean up at the end of the season our gardens.

Donate to Us!

Help us continue to support local foods and make healthy produce available to anyone regardless of income. No one who wants to be a first-time gardener is turned down because of inability to pay.

Checks can be made out to IRPS.

Growing Together, Virginia Community Gardens is under the umbrella of the Iron Range Partnership for Sustainability (IRPS). It is funded by Essentia Health with the goal to increase access to nutritious, locally grown food for all. The City of Virginia generously allows the use of its property for our gardens.

Have you always wanted to plant a garden but didn't have the space?

Are you thinking that now is the time to start providing some nutritious produce for yourself or your family?

Then come and join us in gardening around the City of Virginia! Garden plots are easy to rent and are just the right size to start gardening and provide a supplement to your seasonal produce. If you prefer, you can plant beautiful flowers to brighten your day all season long!

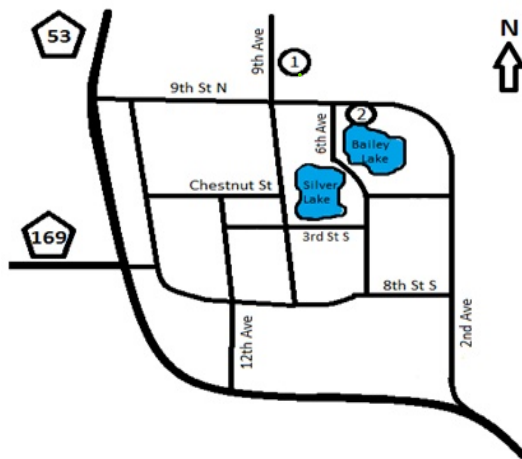

Just fill out the attached application indicating your garden choice by numbering the site or sites in order of preference. If a garden plot is available for you, we will mail you a garden map with your site designated, along with a contract to sign and return with your payment.

Plot fees are on a sliding scale. If you are unable to pay the full amount, please indicate how much you can pay.

Additional plots may be available to those who are interested.

Gardeners are expected to care for and maintain their gardens, which includes weeding, watering and clean up at the end of the season.

No synthetic fertilizers, herbicides or pesticides are allowed. We will send you a list of natural alternatives.
